

Satellite Workshop at Interspeech 2019

September 14, 2019 in Graz, Austria

Inffeldgasse 13, Room HSi8 PZ2

Keynote Speech

“Variation in spoken pluricentric languages: insights from large corpora and challenges for speech technology”

Martine Adda-Decker (Université Sorbonne Nouvelle Paris 3).

Panel Discussion

“The role of pluricentricity for speech technology, and the role of speech technology for pluricentric languages”

Catia Cucchiarini (Radboud University Nijmegen), Walter Scholger (University of Graz), Juraj Šimko (University of Helsinki), Michael Stadtschnitzer (Fraunhofer Institute, IAIS), Andrej Žgank (University of Maribor).

Registration

Senior Scientists: 100 Euros; Students: 0 Euros. The registration includes free coffee and lunch breaks. Please register at:
https://interspeech2019.org/registration/online_registration

Workshop organizers: Rudolf Muhr (University of Graz), Barbara Schuppler (Graz University of Technology), Tania Habib & Sarmad Hussain (University of Lahore, Pakistan).

